SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION:
 Weekdays after 10am Mass Every Saturday at 5pm Or by appointment

3rd June 2018 Corpus Christi (page 85 of Parish Mass Book) YEAR B

At the heart of this communion is the sacrifice of Calvary, the broken body and shed blood of Christ's love for the world. The sacrifice of Calvary cannot be repeated because it has not ceased in its power. It throbs through every atom of creation and every second of time. But Jesus's priestly work continues. He is the Eternal Priest and the Everlasting Victim. In the sacrifice of the Mass we repeatedly re-enter into his self offering to the Father. In the prayers around the consecration we place our prayers of thanksgiving and of petition for the living and the dead into his one Calvary Prayer. Within our worship of the Body and Blood of the Lord present on the altar, we place our own self-offering of our Christian bodily life.

All our Christian activity is taken up into the Eucharist just as the Eucharist is at the same point the wellspring of our hope and our courage 'until the Lord comes'. Our daily prayerfulness within Christ includes all creation as we prayer 'in the name of every creature under heaven' and as we pray -

'Father may this sacrifice which has made our peace with you, advance the peace and salvation of all the world.'

John Farrell O.P.

IMPORTANT - GIFT AID

The new sets of envelopes come into use this week-end.

In future only these GREEN envelopes (or yellow for the 2nd Collections) can be counted as Gift Aided offerings.

PLEASE THROW AWAY any envelopes you may have left from previous years.

Some Gift Aid members will note that their envelope number has changed. This has been done to utilise numbered sets no longer in use by former members of the scheme who have moved away; saving both paper and parish expenses!

If you are one of the forty people who have not yet collected your box, I will endeavour to contact you over the next few weeks.

Data protection requires me to confirm names and addresses before attempting to deliver or post sets. Any problems, please contact me via the Parish Office. Jenny Mitchener
