SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION:
 By appointment only

30th August 2020 Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time YEAR A

In today's Gospel Peter moves quickly on from his moment of inspiration last week to his second greatest moment of weakness and confusion, (second only to his denial at Jesus' trial). He is severely rebuked by Jesus, not only because he has misunderstood Jesus' vocation but also his own as a disciple of Christ, let alone being chief among the Apostles.

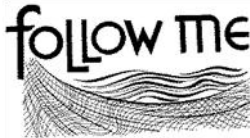

So, speaking more generally to all the disciples, Jesus goes on to lay down the conditions for any who want to follow him: it means taking up one's own cross and losing one's life in order to find it. This is the path that Jesus must follow and the path that all who would seek association with him must also be prepared to embrace.

The fact that the so recently exalted Peter had so much difficulty with it, and even that Jesus had difficulty with it, praying in the Garden that '...this cup might pass me by...' should be for us all a source of comfort. Christian discipleship is not Stoic indifference. Both Peter's remonstrance and Jeremiah's complaint in the O.T. reading will often echo in our hearts in the daily struggle to go with Jesus along the costly prophetic way.

This week the schools reopen, a significant step as we try to restore some sense of normality whilst recognising the need to live our lives as safely as possible. In the same way we need to start to consider restoring parochial life, that is our life as God's holy people in the parish of Addiscombe. The Mass has been restored now for some weeks and is being celebrated observing 2 meters social distancing and the congregation wearing masks (Gov guidance is 1 meter with face coverings). First Holy Communions are being celebrated over 9 Masses during September to ensure they too can be conducted safely. Masses are brief, and a small army of helpers sanitise the church between celebrations. So whilst the obligation to attend Mass is still rescinded, we believe we have taken all possible steps to ensure that, should you wish to practice your faith in the manner we love as Catholic Christians, it is safe for you to do so.

Fr Jackson and Fr Keith look forward to seeing you soon at the Altar with Christ in our midst.

God bless, and stay safe.
